How to Make a Happy Home.

COMPLETE instructions for making every home beautiful and, therefore, happy, will be found in our very popular Book entitled,

Home-Making AND * House-Keeping,

which treats exhaustively of all matters relative to making a home what it can and should be.

Price, $1.00 Per Copy.

Prospective Brides and all Housekeepers, young or old, will find "Home-Making and House-Keeping" filled with hints and instructions through which the commonplace may be made refined and beautiful, the beautiful comfortable, and all surroundings harmonious. To read and heed its monitions will bring order out of chaos, and in this particular may reduce confusion to serenity and thus establish happiness.

Should you not be able to procure the Book from the nearest Agency for the sale of our Goods, send your Order, with the Price, direct to us, and the Work will be forwarded, pre-paid, to your Address.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

This wish survived the stage-coach days,
The age of horses and sleighs,
And now while planes and motors roar
It's just as hearty as of yore!

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

INSIDE, OUTSIDE, UPSTAIRS, DOWN
HOPE YOU HAVE THE HAPPIEST CHRISTMAS DAY
IN TOWN

WORDS AND MUSIC
VIRGINIA WOODWARD
CLOUD

I.
*It's a long way round the year, my dears,
A long way round the year!
I found the frost and the flame, my dears,
I found the smile and tear!*

II.
*The wind blew high on the pine-topp'd bill,
And cut me keen on the moor;
The heart of the stream was frozen still,
As I tapped at the miller's door.*

Allegretto.

It's a long way round the year, my dears, A long way round the year! I found the frost and the flame, my dears, I found the smile and tear! I

III.
*I tossed them bolly in ball and cot,
And bade them right good cheer,
But stayed me not in any spot,
For I'd traveled around the year*

IV.
*To bring the Christmas joy, my dears,
To your eyes so bonnie and true;
And a mistletoe bough for you, my dears,
A mistletoe bough for you!*

bring the Christmas joy, my dears, To your eyes so bonnie and true; And a mistle-toe bough for you, my dears, A mis-tle-toe bough for you!

THE SAME OLD-
FASHIONED GREETING
FROM THE SAME OLD FRIEND YOU KNOW
MAY SANTA BRING HIS CHOICEST GIFTS
TO YOU ACROSS THE SNOW

There's nothing Santa more enjoys
Than making toys for girls and boys,
And in his way he's wondrous wise,
For he knows just what'll please your eyes.

CHRISTMAS JOYS

THE PIE AND THE CLOCK.

BY ELIZA ATKINS STONE.

ON Christmas day we had a pie,
A nice round pie with a crimpy rim;
And mother was cutting it, and she said,
"Big or little?" to Uncle Jim.

Uncle Jim looked a funny look
Right up over mother's head.
Then he told her, "'Bout ten minutes, please."
Truly, that 's just what he said.

Everybody stared at him.
Mother said: "What under the sun!"
Father said: "Too deep for me!
Come, Jim, give us an easy one."

But I looked up at our tall old clock (Where Uncle Jim had looked when he spoke).
Five minutes past three! He winked at me,
And I winked back, for I saw the joke.

December.

On Christmas day, when fires were lit,
And all our breakfasts done,
We spread our toys out on the floor
And played there in the sun.

The nursery smelled of Christmas tree,
And under where it stood
The shepherds watched their flocks of sheep,
-All made of painted wood.

Outside the house the air was cold
And quiet all about,
Till far across the snowy roofs
The Christmas bells rang out.

But soon the sleigh-bells jingled by
Upon the street below,
And people on the way to church,
Went crunching through the snow.

We did not quarrel once all day;
Mamma and Grandma said
They liked to be in where we were,
So pleasantly we played.

I do not see how any child
Is cross on Christmas day,
When all the lovely toys are new,
And everyone can play.

K. Pyle.

The Children's Carol:

words & music
by John Rae

Come children all for we've begun to light the candles one by one. Oh gentle, starry Christmas lights to cel-e-brate this best of nights, and as we light these flames of ours, soft singing angels light the stars. Then let us sing as angels do, who kindle Christmas candles too! No-el! no-el! no-el!

At Christmas-Tide

By Lucia W. Eames

O'er land and sea, o'er woodland and o'er wave,
O'er halls of mirth and o'er the silent grave,
O'er noisy city street and white-robed lea
Shines forth the Christmas Light triumphantly.

It gleams upon the gray cathedral old,
And turns its masonry to shining gold;
Then through the archéd windows streaming bright
It wreathes each bending head with mystic light.

It visits, too, the peasant's poor abode,
And sends him whistling down the winding road;
It wakes his dimpled babe to smile once more
Responsive to its mother bending o'er.

Into my heart it shines, and bringeth peace —
Stilling the conflict, bidding strife to cease,
And putting flight to each disturbing care
That stealthily had come and nested there.

Sweet Light of Love, from Bethlehem's manger flowing,
Peace and good-will upon the world bestowing,
Shine on through all the year with undimmed rays,
And brighten e'en as now our coming days.

A French Noël.

I hear along our street
Pass the minstrel throngs;
Hark! they play so sweet,
On their hautboys, Christmas songs!
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

In December ring
Every day the chimes;
Lo! the gleemen sing
In the streets their merry rhymes.
Let us by the fire, etc.

Shepherds at the grange,
Where the Babe was born,
Sang, with many a change,
Christmas carols until morn.
Let us by the fire, etc.

These good people sang
Songs devout and sweet;
While the rafters rang
There they stood with freezing feet.
Let us by the fire, etc.

Nuns in frigid cells
At this holy tide
For want of something else
Christmas songs at times have tried.
Let us by the fire, etc.

Washerwomen old,
To the sound they beat,
Sing by rivers cold
With uncovered heads and feet.
Let us by the fire, etc.

Who by the fireside stands
Stamps his feet and sings,
But he who blows his hands
Not so gay a carol brings.
Let us by the fire, etc.

Translated from GUY BAROZAI by HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW.

A NEW MOTHER GOOSE
JINGLE.

Singing a song of Christmas-time,
Mistletoe and holly,
Two impatient little girls,
Genevieve and Dolly.
When the door was opened
They shouted in their glee,
And wouldn't you have shouted too
To have so fine a tree?

My butter - her has come to wish
My friends a happy
Christmas
I can't interpret at
P - her speech
But, I distinctly
"I heard her say:
"I hope that many a
Kind fate will leave within your way."
H.M. Burrows.

The feeling soon becomes
- Brisk & bright, & more
- He's waiting - with
- a greeting
- When you please to rise -
- "A happy Christmas
- to you"
- He says with all his eyes!
H.M. Burrows.

A Merry Christmas
and lots of fun
From the first glad chime
till the day is done

WISHES FOR CHRISTMAS CHEER

Deck the halls with boughs of holly
Tis the season to be Jolly
Celebrate the day
with fun
Merry Christmas
