

~Our Holistic Homeschool!~

CREEPY CLASSICAL MUSIC APPRECIATION

*Use this assignment in conjunction with our “Creepy Classical Music Appreciation Playlist for Halloween” on our Spotify account under “Our Holistic Homeschool” or find us on our website: OurHolisticHomeschool.com

SONG TITLE: _____

COMPOSER: _____

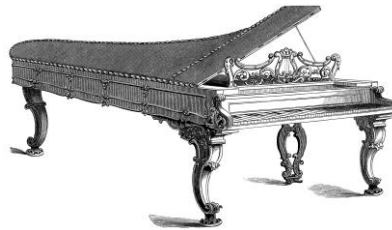

FROM (symphony/movie/other): _____

Instruments I hear (circle as many as apply):

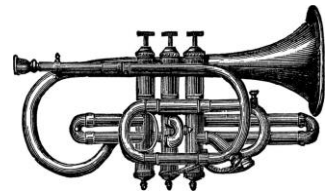

violin

piano

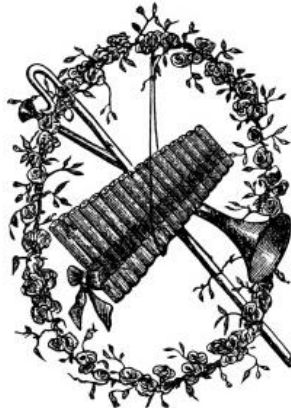

trumpet

French horn

pipes or flute

organ

Other instruments not pictured (synthesized keyboard, trombone, oboe, bassoon, cymbals, etc.):

What music/instrument choices make this selection sound particularly creepy to you?

What music/instrument choices make this selection sound particularly frightening to you?

Close your eyes as you listen to this piece and let your imagination take over. What images does this song present to your imagination? Does a story, scene, or certain characters come to mind?

Use this piece of music to inspire either a drawing, painting, choreographed dance, short story, dramatic performance, or other artistic rendering. Plan your artistic expression for this music selection on the back of this sheet as needed.

* Bonus activity: with parent permission, choose a selection from our “Creepy Classical Music Appreciation Playlist” (such as “Interstellar,” “Vertigo,” “Snow White,” “Onward,” etc.) Watch corresponding scene from the movie, first on mute, and then again with volume. Discuss experience or write a short essay comparing and contrasting the effect of the scene with and without music.

